

Experienced Tim Hortons Baker

Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre is not only a world-class sport and recreation venue that proudly hosted the international community for the Pan Am and Parapan Am Games. The facility is also an amazing place to join hundreds of professionals who look to develop their career in an exciting and rewarding environment.

A legacy of the 2015 Toronto Pan Am and Parapan Am Games, Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre (TPASC) is operated by a corporation co-owned by the City of Toronto and the University of Toronto. The world-class facility was the largest sport new-build for the Games and the largest infrastructure investment in Canadian amateur sport history. TPASC delivers extensive programming that serves recreational and community groups, high performance athletes, as well as fitness Centre clientele. The 312,000 square-foot TPASC includes two internationally sanctioned 10-lane 50-metre pools, a world-class dive pool and dry-land dive training facilities, a four-court gymnasium, an indoor running track, conditioning rooms, a high-performance testing Centre, studio spaces, and a state-of-the-art fitness Centre for members. The Canadian Sport Institute Ontario (CSIO), located at TPASC, provides world-leading sport science and sport performance services. TPASC opened to community users, University of Toronto faculty, staff and students, City of Toronto program users and high performance in September 2014. For more information visit www.tpasc.ca

TPASC is currently looking for:
